

Week of Respect

October 6-10, 2014

In accordance with the Anti-Bullying Bill of Rights Act put into place in 2011, students at Avon Elementary School will honor one another during the Week of Respect. Different themes will be scheduled each day, allowing for students to express their individuality, take care of themselves, make new friends and respect one another. Classroom teachers will also offer the opportunity to engage in lessons and activities to promote acceptance and positive relationships.

Monday, Oct. 6: Teamwork Day!

Wear your favorite sports team gear. Students will be challenged to be the best teammate they can be in school today.

Tuesday, Oct. 7: Crazy Hair Day!

Wear a crazy hair style. Students will be challenged to accept differences in others today.

Wednesday, Oct. 8: Comfort Day!

Wear your pjs or anything else that is comfortable. Students will be challenged to take care of themselves emotionally today.

Thursday, Oct. 9: Best Foot Forward Day!

Dress in your best clothes. Students will be challenged to be as polite as they can today.

Friday, Oct. 10: Mix It Up Day!

Dress in an unusual way (backwards, un-matching, unexpected etc.) Students will be challenged to get to know someone new today.
