This Week in ELA Grades 6-8...

Sixth Grade continued reading, analyzing, and discussing our class novel, Wonder by R.J. Palacio.

We read and analyzed poetry, took notes and practiced literary terms, completed daily literacy skills activities, and read our Independent Reading (IR) books. We began closely reading and analyzing paired texts about saving orangutans and the rainforests. We also continued closely and critically analyzing nonfiction paired texts from Scholastic Scope by revising essays. We practiced writing text-dependent paragraphs, and we responded to April choice board writing prompts. We read nonfiction texts on Newsela and completed activity pages, and we completed weekly i-Ready lessons. We also practiced cursive writing. We continued Wordly Wise Lesson 10 activities, and tests will be Wednesday, April 16th. Students began presenting "Dog Breeds" research projects. Assignments are posted in Google Classroom.

Seventh Grade finished reading, analyzing, and discussing our class novel, The Giver by Lois Lowry.

ELA Grades 6-8...

Middle School English Language Arts Curriculum is aligned to the New Jersey Student Learning Standards for English Language Arts. We use the workshop model of instruction in both reading and writing. Students read and write across a wide variety of genres as well as study the effective uses of writing, mechanics, and grammar. The curriculum supports, encourages, and facilitates choice/independent reading that allows students to pursue topics and genres of interests. The curriculum also embeds text activities and literacy experiences that engage students in reading partnerships and deep, thoughtful discussions.

Sixth Grade texts include read alouds, poetry, nonfiction articles from Newsela and Scholastic Scope magazine, fiction texts, short stories, and the novels Hoot, by Carl Hiaasen and Wonder, by R.J. Palacio.

Seventh Grade texts include read alouds, poetry, nonfiction articles from Newsela and Scholastic Scope magazine, fiction texts, short stories, and the novels The Giver, by Lois Lowry, Holes by Louis Sachar, and (possibly) Drums, Girls, and Dangerous Pie, by Jordan Sonnenblick.

Eighth Grade texts include read alouds, poetry, nonfiction articles from Newsela and Scholastic Scope magazine, fiction texts, short stories, and the novels The Outsiders, by S.E. Hinton, The Gospel According to Larry by Janet Tashjian, and Sleeping Freshmen Never Lie by David Lubar, and (possibly) Drums, Girls, and Dangerous Pie, by Jordan Sonnenblick.
